WHereas I have been informed, that it is the general Opinion of the Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Nottingham that the Militia should be raised within the same; and whereas, by an Act of Parliament of the Ninth Year of His present Majesty, it is directed, That, in all Counties where the Militia has not been raised, His Majesty's Lieutenant for every such County, with any two or more Deputy Lieutenants, or, on the Removal, or in the Absence, of His Majesty's Lieutenant, any three or more Deputy-Lieutenants, shall meet, at some City or Principal Town of the County or Place for which they shall be commissioned, on the second Tuesday in March in every Year: And whereas such Meeting was this Year duly advertised, and only one Deputy-Lieutenant attended the same: As I shall always think myself happy in contributing to the utmost of my Power to any Thing that will be agreeable to the County in general, I do hereby appoint a General Meeting to be held at the Swan Inn in Mansfield in the said County of Nottingham, on Tuesday the Thirteenth Day of June next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon; and I hope the Deputy-Lieutenants, and other Gentlemen of the County, will be so obliging as to attend there on that Day, and use their utmost Endeavours to put the Militia Laws into Execution.
